Hello Friend,

It's hard to feel like it's the right time to start something new, you know? Right now, there's so much UNcertainty! Is it really the right moment for a TpT store?

YES, now is the right moment!

But, ok, let's say you're pretty sure it's not the right time, so you don't start. Instead:

- You keep looking for a way to bring more income to your family.
- You follow other teacherpreneurs on social media and wonder how they figure this thing out.
- Your great ideas for new resources languish in the hard drive of your computer.

Your wish to make an impact in the world eventually fades away to a memory.

Don't let this happen to you and your dreams!

Teachers and students NEED your resources. One thing that IS certain is education is going to continue.

There is a reason you want to start or grow your TpT store, and it's bigger than just you. Thriving Teacher Academy is here to support you and your dream.

Your opportunity to create your thriving TpT store is NOW because Thriving Teacher Academy is only open until May 5th!

I'M READY FOR A THRIVING STORE

Remember, Thriving Teacher Academy has all the information, tutorials and templates you need to launch or grow your TpT store. From branding to resource creation to marketing, all the information you need is gathered in one place.

PLUS, you have access to a private Facebook group to keep you motivated and accountable.

READY FOR MORE SALES?

Hello Friend,

Do you remember what it felt like when you re-arranged all the pictures on the wall? Or painted that room in your house? Maybe it was just spray-painting a piece of furniture to give it a face-lift.

It's so exciting to talk about that project you just completed, and show off your handiwork. Plus, it just gives you so much more energy to get other things done!

Guess what?

This works for your TpT store too!

No spray paint or heavy lifting required here, but I always notice that I get an increase in sales when I update my resources.

There are so many ways that you can do this!

- Re-work an entire resource.
- Update part of a resource.
- Put up all new (and consistent!) covers or thumbnails.
- Re-write your titles and add new keywords in your descriptions.
- Add in information about how to use a resource digitally.
- Explain how a resource will make your audience's life easier.

And, remember to go share about your new updates on the gram!

One member posted last month on Facebook how updating all of her covers gave her store a complete make-over. This is why Target remodels every few years. It makes everything look bright, shiny, new... more appealing!

There's an added bonus to making some updates too. You also create MORE energy and excitement to market your store with confidence and pizzazz.

Plus, you and your audience get to skip all of the construction dust and plastic shielding during the “remodel”. Total win-win compared to Target 😊

If you’ve been waiting to revamp some of those older resources, stop waiting. Go do it, now!

In fact, I’ve just launched the Thriving Teacher Templates Membership [LINK] that is designed to give you new ideas and resources every week. Imagine having a new idea show up in your inbox every week! How much time would that save you?

For just $19 a month, you’ll get one template or tutorial a week to help you create valuable resources immediately. These are perfect for updating and revamping existing resources now AND creating new resources for fall, winter or next spring. You won’t have to search for ideas or wonder what to try next!

SEND ME TEMPLATES!

PLUS... your 1st month includes 7 templates AND a mini-course on Product Planning and Streamlining to increase your product creation strategy. If you’ve been wondering how to fit it all in, this mini-course will give you the strategies you need to do take that next step

Whichever way you choose to go... making strategic updates to your store OR join the Thriving Teacher Templates Membership, I’m betting you’ll see an increase in normal summer sales!
